3. Matters Arising

- The Broomstick : Mario Malecki will work on the content of the newsletter and Graham Birt will put together the document. Graham Birt will be responsible for distribution.
- Jon Parker : Jon Parker is still interested in joining the committee and will be co-opted.
- Quiz Night : The quiz night had been a great success.

4. New Members

A discussion took place on the best method for approving new membership applications and introducing the new members to the club. It was agreed that prospective new members should be invited to a meeting to meet members of the committee, and if that was not possible, a meeting should be arranged between the applicant and one or more committee members.

5. Committee Meeting Agendas

The Chairman suggested that a prioritised list of discussion topics was drawn up, and that each topic was allocated to a future meeting. This would enable the committee to have an in depth discussion on important issues. Agreed topics were :

- The coach trip (February committee meeting).
- CRCS training scheme and the BMFA Achievement scheme.
- Fly-ins and club events.

6. Suscribptions by Direct Debit

It had been suggested that subscriptions could be collected by direct debit. The Treasurer was not happy with this suggestion, and the committee agreed that he could collect subscriptions by whatever method he felt most suitable.

7. The Cotswold Gliding Club Chairman

Mario Maleck reported that he had made contact with the Chairman of the Gliding Club, Darell Tucker. He is an ex-modeller and has a positive view of the CRCS. Mario will try and meet him in the near future.

8. BMFA Achievement Awards

A discussion took place on the BMFA Achievement Scheme, and it was agreed that the CRCS should adopt the A&B certificates.

It was proposed that Mario Malecki should be nominated as a club examiner :

- Proposed : Graham Birt.
- Seconded : Eric Brownbill

The proposal was carried unanimously.

The Chairman closed the meeting at 9:00p.m..
