- Bob Maltby was organising a BBQ.
- Jon Parker would be providing a marquee and a generator.
- Pilot boxes need painting and/or renewing.
- Bob Maltby had done a set of professionally produced signs for the event. A discussion took place on their mounting and positioning.
- The management of the day needed organising and there were a variety of jobs to be assigned.

6. Membership

The Membership Secretary reported that one new flyer had visited the club, but had not yet mentioned the possibility of joining the club.

7. New Members' Procedure

The Secretary reminded the meeting that a procedure for admitting new members had been agreed several years ago, and that this required the membership application to be brought to the committee for approval prior to the prospective member being admitted. The Treasurer assured the meeting that this procedure had been followed.

8. George Ford

The retiring Vice Chairman, George Ford, had been a loyal and active member of the CRCS for many years, but had been forced to stop down due to ill health. The committee asked the Secretary to write him a letter of thanks for his services to the club.

9. The office of CRCS President

A discussion took place concerning the desirability of appointing a CRCS President.

The Acting Chairman closed the meeting at 21:03p.m..
